INDIA AND INDIAN CONSTITUTION

Ability Enhancement Compulsory Courses (AECC)
Course Title: INDIA AND INDIAN CONSTITUTION
Total Contact Hours: 45	Course Credits: 3
No. of Teaching Hours/Week:3	Duration of ESA/Exam: 2 Hours
Formative Assessment Marks: 40	Summative Assessment Marks: 60+40=100

Course Objective

The purpose of the course is to help students to learn and explain the journey of India as a republic. They will, through this paper learn to contextualise the depth of India as a nation with its diverse socio-political culture, its philosophical traditions, values and Ideals. It will give them knowledge to expound the breadth of freedom struggle in various parts of India, its significance in nation building and the sacrifices made both by its leaders and followers. It will help them to demonstrate their knowledge regarding the efforts made at working towards a constitution as India's conscience cherishing the values of Justice, Liberty, Equality and Fraternity. Consequently it will enable students to contextualise the powers and functions of various offices under the Constitution. It will help them determine the role and responsibilities of citizens as enshrined in the Constitution, offering insights in to the contributions of personalities like Gandhiji, Dr B.R.Ambedkar and Jawahar Lal Nehru, Bal Gangadhar Tilak, the values tolerance, equality of treatment, scientific secularism and swarajya and the processes of policymaking keeping national wellbeing in the forefront. This paper will enable students to illustrate how vibrant our Constitution is, how farsighted were its makers and how efficient are the various institutions that are functioning under it.

Learning outcomes

Upon completion of this course students will be able to—

- Explain the philosophy and the structure of the Constitution.
- Measure the powers, functions and limitations of various offices under the Constitution.
- Demonstrate the values, ideals and the role of Constitution in a democratic India.

Political Science

Syllabus wef 2021-22

Unit-III	Constitutional Institutions and Citizen's role
	Chapter 7: Parliamentary and Constitutional Institutions: Legislature* (Upper and Lower house), Executive (composition and powers), Judiciary (High Court and Supreme Court, its composition and jurisdiction), Comptroller and Auditor General, Inter-State Council, Election Commission.	6 Hours
	Chapter 8: Role and Responsibilities of Citizens under Indian Constitution: Concept of Citizenship, Citizenship Amendment Act, Fundamental Duties, Right to Information Act, Civil Society.*	4 Hours
	Chapter 9: Goals and Policies of National Development enshrined in the Constitution: Concept of National Development, Unity and Integrity of the nation, Goals of Educational Policies*, Role of teachers and students in Nation Building.	5 Hours

(Note-This is a compulsory, foundational and value additional course to be taught to students at the graduate level under NEP 2020. The paper is expected to impart the structure and functional aspects of constitution while giving them the background of a diverse country like India and the nuances of its social fabric and the why of such an elaborate constitution. The introductory chapter therefore is designed to familiarise students about their country and culture before they understand their constitution).

(Please note: The question paper pattern is indicative of the way a teacher needs to teach this paper. The pedagogical choice of a teacher helps to make an impact of his/her teaching on the student. Activity based and experiential teaching methods help student centric learning process - these are tips to make this paper more meaningful- the ultimate choice is left to the teacher)

Exercise:

- Department can debate on the role of Constitution in the development of India.
- Students can empirically evidence the effectiveness of concepts like –Freedom, Equality, Justice, Rights and Duties by conducting empirical studies.
- Can invite experts to deliver special lectures on various provisions and amendments of the Constitution like the functioning of Election Commission, Article 246, 356 etc.

Important Notes:Chapter 1:

* These are introductory courses. Teachers should give a brief introduction to these for a better understanding of the philosophical and political foundations of Indian society taking suggested thinkers as examples (Max 2hrs).

 Here teachers should briefly teach about the contributions and impact of British and Arabs as invaders, Mughals as settlers (Max 2hrs).
